

The “Working Works” Public Service Announcement Transcript of :60 Version

Chanelle Houston (Research Analyst): I work.

Bruce Goebel (Cabinet Maker): I work.

Cal Ripken, Jr. (Former Professional Baseball Player): I work.

Ish Escobar (Human Resources Professional, Veteran): And I want to keep working.

Bruce Goebel: I work for the challenge.

Cal Ripken, Jr: Because people are counting on me.

Ish Escobar: To provide for my family.

Chanelle Houston: And I’m employed today, because we worked together.

Kevin Beverly (President & CEO): Worked together.

Christine Crawford (Occupational Therapist): Worked together.

Chanelle Houston: When my life changed in an instant....

Bruce Goebel: ...When I got hurt...

Ish Escobar: ...Needed support...

Chanelle Houston: We made a plan...

Bruce Goebel: ...So I could come back strong...

Cal Ripken, Jr.: ...So I could stay in the game...

Kevin Beverly: Because we couldn’t succeed without her.

Bruce Goebel: It wasn’t a matter of if I could go back to work.

Ish Escobar: It was a matter of when and how.

Chanelle Houston: Because working works.

Bruce Goebel: Working works.

Chanelle Houston: It lets me earn a living.

Cal Ripken, Jr.: Be there for the team.

Ish Escobar: Together, we made a plan...

Cal Ripken, Jr.: ...To keep me on the field—for 2,632 games in a row.

Chanelle Houston: ...To keep me working.

Cal Ripken, Jr.: America works best when all Americans can work. Ensuring workers can stay on the job or return to work following an injury or illness is essential to America's economy. To learn more, visit WhatCanYouDoCampaign.org.